

Del Properties signs with Reltronics technologies to install security systems in their new housing development project

Rochester /01-November-2008: Del Properties is the developer of the Villas of Brighton, which is a new Community, as of the writing of this news release, in the Town of Brighton. The Villas of Brighton is a Unique Rental Community of single story Villa Style Homes with attached garages.

Del Properties chose Reltronics Technologies to install residential security systems in each of their 37 rental homes. Reltronics Technologies will install a robust system, with 2 keypads, appropriate motion sensors, door sensors, etc. and provide 24/7/365 monitoring of the residence.

Reltronics Technologies, Inc. specializes in providing expertise in Security and Tracking Solutions. The company assists in developing, installing, and maintaining security and tracking systems. Our key areas of concentration are Personnel ID & Access Control Systems, Fire & Burglar Alarm, CCTV Monitoring Systems, and Asset, Inventory, Fleet, & Record Management Systems. Reltronics Technologies integrates systems which involve technologies such as critical condition monitoring, intrusion, access control, fire protection, RFID, data encryption, closed circuit television (CCTV), and electronic article surveillance (EAS) systems. Reltronics Technologies is certified by the New York State Department of State to install, service, and maintain security or fire alarm systems (Lic#12000272208). For information, call the NY State department at (518) 474-4429. Reltronics Technologies has value-added resellers (VARs), distributors, and dealers that enable implementation of Security & Tracking Systems worldwide. For Further information, email us at secure@reltronicstech.com or call us at (585) 427-2550.